Thanks to our Uncle Sam, I was able to visit a number of far away places. They included, Alaska, Japan, Okinawa, California and Viet Nam. What I found is that most people are the same where ever I went. The language was different, food, culture, religion and many customs were different, but the people were much the same. Family was important, hopes and dreams of a better life and the importance of lasting relationships could be found in all people. We are more alike than different. I can still recall people I met that made a lasting impression on me many years ago and many miles away.

Take care until next time...

Answers

By Allen Brintley and "Pip"

The other day I was watching a sports program with an old mule buddy. An ad came on with some people scuba-diving. I asked the question "Why do people always fall backwards into the water when they go scuba-diving?" In his infinite wisdom, my buddy responded "That's easy. If they fall forward, they would still be in the boat!" We both had a big laugh and later I got to thinking that he was right in the way he looked at it. It wasn't the response that I was looking for but maybe it was because I didn't ask the question correctly. Sometimes our horses and mules don't give us the response we're looking for. It's not always their fault, most of the time it's ours for not communicating correctly. I've heard some old timers say that people don't have horse problems, horses have people problems. What they mean is that a horse has no problem being a horse. We have to learn to speak horse. Break things down to the simplest tasks and make sure we are asking properly. Always try to set them up to succeed. Like when trying to get them to walk on a lead, use a fence on one side so they will walk straight and not be tempted to go the other way. Always be safe, and don't be afraid to ask for help to learn to communicate better with your animal. By the way, Pip can speak mule perfectly and she's always teaching me. She'll pull a pretty good joke every now and then and all I can do is laugh.

You can email me at Allen@twinriversrealty.com or call 690-7870. I'll see you on the trails.

King & Queen Resource Council THANK YOU

On Sunday, August 12th, King & Queen Resource Council, in conjunction with KQ Department of Social Services hosted our third annual “Yoots & Coots” Fishing Day. The purpose of this event is to enable children with special needs and older adults the opportunity to fish together. The event was hosted by Mr. Tucker, of Tucker’s Beach, who generously donated 10 boats and the pavilion for our event. The day was a success due, in part, to the volunteers from the community and the staff of the social services department.

We were able to send each participant home with a rod and reel, and a backpack with school supplies for each child. This was due to the generosity of King & Queen Farm Bureau, Andy’s Automotive, Roma Restaurant, Food Lion (Aylett), 360 Hardware, Vinney’s Restaurant, Cabela’s, Hopkins Sporting Goods, New to You Thrift Store, and Mercedes Benz of Richmond. Ice was donated by Plain View Farm.

Many thanks to Mizpah United Methodist Church, and Rev. Betty Jo Sims, for the beautiful Sunday morning service and the great lunch.

Thank you, from the kids, the seniors and, the King & Queen community, to everyone who donated their resources and their time to this event.

Ruck to Remember

RUCK TO REMEMBER is an event that cuts to the heart of what Memorial Day is about. Remembering those that have fallen in service to our country. The Ruck to Remember is a 60-mile Ruck march from Harper’s Ferry, WV to section 60 (60 to 60) of Arlington National Cemetery over the Memorial Day weekend. The final miles take the participants through the Iwo Jima, Korean War, Vietnam War, and World War 2 Memorials.

Aylett resident, and retired Navy veteran, Tim Vaughan, has participated in the Ruck to Remember the previous two years and shares his experience below:

Throughout the entirety of the event participants are immersed in the memories of these heroes through the Stories of Valor that each participant shares. These stories are extremely personal and carry a lot of emotion for the individuals sharing. The stories relate the impact the fallen had on the person sharing the story; often they served together or were a family member. As a listener, you gain insight into a life cut short and family no longer whole. Of how they lived, how they impacted the story teller, and through the sharing you come to know that person as if you knew them yourself. You don’t just hear about the loss; you come to feel it in your own heart. We share the stories throughout the of the event but the final miles, through the war memorials, are usually quiet and reflective. You feel the loss, not just of those that shared a story of valor, but of the nation. You connect the personal loss shared by those participating in the Ruck to Remember to the thousands upon thousands of names etched on the Vietnam War Memorial, to the haunting expressions of the soldiers in the Korean War Memorial, and feel it most acutely when you see the families of the fallen standing beside the white markers covering the hillsides of Arlington National Cemetery.

Towards the end of the event you can’t help but have a sense of melancholy but afterwards you feel a sense of pride and hope, because you learned about some truly amazing people. You then can share that knowledge with others who may never come to know about a fallen Marine like CPL Jared Verbeek. Jared was killed in Afghanistan on June 21, 2011 and left behind a wife and young son. Through that sharing, you will truly memorialize the fallen and in so doing will ensure that we as a nation will Never Forget.

Ruck to Remember selected several charity beneficiaries that support veterans and share a common vision with Ruck to Remember. Participants are asked to raise funds for one of the charities as part of their participation. Operation Enduring Warrior (OEW) is one of those charities, and has been for four years now. OEW seeks to Honor, Motivate, and Empower wounded veterans through various programs such as Adventure, Skydiving, and Scuba diving programs. Tim is an active supporter of OEW.

Local Farm Bureau Agent Jim Woolford reacts to Nancy Johnson telling him he won the $500 raffle prize. Jim donated the $500 to the local Agriculture in the classroom program.

Etta is a member of the Women's Committee and Lawrence is a member of the Farm Bureau Board. He also recognized the Women's Committee for being awarded Best in State for 2017 for the Ag Day Event held at 360 Hardware in the Spring. They were awarded $500. They also received First Place in the Eastern District for the same event. The ladies of the Women's Committee are: Nancy Johnson, Etta Hill, Molly Gregory, Darlene Mills, Susan Hurley, Elaine Dean, Betsy Piersa, and Debi Moren.

Charles Piersa

The guest speaker was Bobbi Tassinari, County Administrator, who told the group how happy she was to be back in a rural area after having been a city person for so many years. As County Administrator she talked about the county and its growth. She also purchased a John Deere afghan by Mildred Woody that was raffled with the proceeds going to the Cornerstone.

Nancy Johnson of the Women's Committee reported on the activities of the committee for 2017. Some of the activities included purchasing a park bench to be placed at the State Fair Grounds with King William Farm Bureau Women's Committee listed on it; presented Cornerstone with a $100 donation and collected canned goods for them; presented Melinda Edwards with a $1,000 scholarship; planted vegetable gardens and flower gardens at Cool Springs Primary School; and several members attended the King William County Board of Supervisors' meetings each month. The group sponsored a one day program for Summer Sneakers with 50 children attending. The children played games, learned about farming, made ice cream and received a "goodie" bag. The group purchased books called "This Bee Counts" and, with help from the community, read to 504 children at Cool Springs during National Literacy Week, donated 30 of the books to the school following the event, and donated a bag of supplies and a sample of honey to each of the 23 teachers in K - 2. On the "National Night Out" the ladies gave goodie bags to the children, made a craft involving a cow's face and made ice cream with children and adults alike. A large crowd of Farm Bureau members join together every year to enjoy fellowship over a delicious meal catered by Leon Nixon Catering of North Carolina.

King William County's Lip Sync Challenge

Sheriff Jeff Walton having fun leading the Lip Sync Challenge

By Armistead Saffer

Image courtesy KWSO & Banco Productions

The King William Sheriff's Office accepted the Lip Sync Challenge from the New Kent Sheriff's Office to join this Summer's viral trend. The challenge started in June in Texas when Bexar County's Deputy Alexander Mena recorded himself lip syncing "Fuiste Mala" by Kumbia Kings and it was posted to their Facebook page. Since then Sheriff's Offices from across the nation have been producing their own videos and sharing them on Facebook.

It took about a day to record the video. A lot of the recording took place on National Night Out at the King William Ruritan Park where local residents were invited to join in the video's production. In addition to the Sheriff's Office the video included participants from King William Fire & Rescue, King William/King & Queen Victim Witness, Commonwealth Attorney's office, Regional Animal Shelter, State Probation Office and employees of King William County.

The video is appropriately set to the song "Find Out Who Your Friends Are" written by Casey Beathard and Ed Hill and recorded by Tracy Lawrence featuring Tim McGraw and Kenny Chesney. Brandon Ancarrow of Banco Productions and also a former King William High School student, filmed, edited and produced the video.

Sheriff Walton stated, "The Sheriff's Office took this on as a Community Policing project to enhance our relationships with the community." No money was spent on making the video thanks to Banco Productions donating their services, and most of the people participating volunteered during their off time. The King William Sheriff's Office would like to thank everyone that participated.

To watch the KWSO's Lip Sync Challenge video just go to the King William Sheriff's Office's Facebook page. Be sure to LIKE & SHARE it with your friends! For non-Facebook folks the video can also be found online at: <https://vimeo.com/285746041>

New Source of Entertainment Comes to King William

Story by Florence Cooke

At the County Fest on Saturday, August 18th, there was a new source of entertainment for those who love video games – a game truck owned and operated by Kendrick (Kenny) Veney and Corey Cosby called On the Fly Game Truck. This is a 20 foot custom designed trailer from Premier Game Trailers in Tampa, Florida.

The truck was custom designed for Corey and Kenny as far as equipment, colors, and games. Inside the air conditioned trailer with a capacity of 24 people, there is custom lighting and stereo. One wall has comfortable sofas and the other wall has four flat screen televisions. Outside under an awning there are two additional flat screen televisions. For a flat fee a person gets two hours of entertainment from X Boxes, play stations, a Virtual Reality play station, and Nintendo Switch.

The idea came to these two men because there is a lack of entertainment in the Middle Peninsula/Northern Neck area. In this modern age everyone – both young and old – like to play video games.

The game truck was planned to serve the King William, King and Queen, and Tappahannock areas. In the few weeks the game truck has been in operation it has been a huge success. The two men have been to private parties and events in King William, Tappahannock, Lancaster, Kilmarnock, White Stone, Gloucester and Montross.

This is a great idea for birthday parties, family reunions, and corporate events. For information or to schedule an event, please call 804 – 994 – 3633 or go to the website ontheflygame truck@gmail.com.

Riverside Tappahannock Hospital Graduates 27 Youth from Annual Junior Volunteer Program

Riverside Tappahannock

Hospital graduated 27 students from the health system's summer Junior Volunteer Program, giving area teens a valuable introduction to the health care work place and the soft skills required to be successful in a variety of roles.

Riverside's Junior Volunteer Program, which has been operating for more than 15 years, gives youth with an interest in health care a unique opportunity to assist staff at the hospital during their summer break from high school. Applicants who are accepted into the program tour the facility with their parents and participate in a mandatory orientation session covering hospital procedures, safety policies and privacy measures such as HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act).

This year's cadre of participants included 27 young people from counties across the region, including Essex, Richmond, King William, Westmoreland, Northumberland and Hanover. In each of the two four-week program sessions, volunteers worked two days a week from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., side-by-side with nurses, doctors, adult volunteers and other hospital staff.

In addition to providing experience related to health care careers and business office environments, the Junior Volunteer

Emily Brown, Madeline Maurer, Jada Ashlock, Aaliyah Leonard and Jordan Yocum

Program also offers patient services and clerical support to a variety of hospital departments including the Emergency Room, Operating and Recovery rooms, Medical/Surgical floors, Food Services, Human Resources, Cancer Center, Maintenance, Housekeeping, and Hospice. They also work alongside Adult Volunteers manning the Comfort Cart providing complimentary items to patients to enhance their stay.

The Hills Celebrate 60 Years of Marriage

Lawrence and Etta Hill....now and then

By Gene Campbell

Lawrence Hill's family have roots in King William dating back to the 1800's. He also had cousins in Alberta, Virginia back in the 1950's who "fixed him up" on a blind date with a gal named Etta in December 1955. Now Etta loved to "act" quite a bit in school plays in those days and after their first date Lawrence was "smitten" and he would drive all the way from King William to Alberta just to see her acting in those school plays. Etta was a "bit smitten" too because she would look out from the stage to see if Lawrence was in the audience. Lawrence proposed to Etta in Byrd Park in Richmond on Christmas Eve in 1957 and they were married on August 16, 1958 in Bethel Methodist Church in Alberta. After arriving in Daytona Beach for their honeymoon in Lawrence's red and white 1955 Ford, Lawrence spent "some time" removing "just married" written in black shoe polish all over his beautiful Ford.

Etta graduated from the Johnston-Willis Nursing School in 1958 and went to work for a doctor in West Point. She was one of the first Family Nurse Practitioners in the area after graduating in the second class of FNP in 1976. She retired after 48 years in nursing. Lawrence worked for VDOT for over 30 years as well as on their family farm, Mt. Hope, before retiring. They have two sons, Howard and Earl, and three grandchildren.

On August 16, 2018 Lawrence and Etta celebrated 60 years of marriage at the Annual King William Farm Bureau Dinner at the Ruritan Club Building. When asked what is the secret to a happy marriage, they both said "good communication and a willingness to compromise". Happy Anniversary Lawrence and Etta!

Memorial Service for Canine Trooper Vader

On August 24th, a Memorial Service was held for Canine Trooper Vader at the headquarters of the Virginia State Police before a full attended auditorium. Trooper Vader was killed in the line of duty on August 1, 2018. Colonel Gary Settle, Superintendent of the VSP, said that the Police K-9 Division of the VSP is the second oldest in the United States. Trooper Vader was the second VSP Canine to be killed in the line of duty. The first was Canine Trooper Baron. In 1962 he was killed by an escaped prisoner serving life for murder. Col. Settle recognized from the audience Bob Coats of King William as the Trooper that was the handler of Trooper Baron. It might seem difficult to understand how moving a memorial for a fallen K-9 could be. Those in attendance had to have at least started a tear, for it was just as touching as attending the memorial service of a person. The service was well organized and conducted with finesse. K-9s from other jurisdictions and the military were paraded by their handlers before the assemble in honor of the fallen hero. A memorial will be erected along side of Trooper Baron at the Virginia Tech College of Veterinary Medicine in honor of Trooper Vader.

The way I see it, if you want the rainbow, you gotta put up with the rain.

Ruritan Golf Tournament a Huge Success !

By Gene Campbell

As the sun rose at Queenfield Golf Course on Friday morning Aug 10, King William Ruritan Club members were busy preparing sausage and egg biscuits for the teams arriving for the Club's 16th Annual Golf Tournament while Golf Committee Chairman Dennis Smith was busy directing the activities in preparation for the 9am tee off. This year was a record breaking year for the tournament as thirty-one (31) teams teed off and ninety-one (91) sponsor signs were displayed around the 18 hole golf course. After a round of golf everyone returned to the club pavilion for a delicious lunch of barbeque and catfish with all the fixings prepared by club members.

George Webb and his team took first place honors while Stan Crews team took second and Roger Weakley's team came in third. Chairman Dennis Smith reported this was the best year ever for the tournament. Part of the proceeds go back to the community each year in the form of donations to local fire/rescue departments and local charities. The club is always very appreciative of our local businesses and individuals who sponsor and support us throughout the year.

If you are interested in participating in another golf tournament, the Annual Chesapeake District Ruritan Golf Tournament will be held Friday Sept 21 at Queenfield Golf Club with the same format. Please call 363-1781 or email genec1781@gmail.com for more info.

In the parking lot the cars were divided – on one side were Fords and on the other side were Corvettes. Six of the Mustangs came from the Victory 7 Mustang Club of Richmond. Eight of the Corvettes were from the Heavenly Corvette Club of Westmoreland. Several other vintage cars joined the group throughout the afternoon.

The oldest car was a 1934 Ford owned by local resident Walter Smith. A 1963 Chevy from Richmond and 1969 – 1970 Chevrolet Nova were the next oldest cars. At this car show there were no prizes or competition – just a group of vintage car owners who came together to show their cars and have fellowship with each other.

The car show was from 3 p.m. – dusk. At 4 p.m. an old fashioned family picnic was held. On Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Wilbert D. Talley was the preacher at the 11 a.m. service. Following lunch the guest speaker was Mr. David Scott and the concert was by the Sensational Gospel Tones. Revival was held Tuesday – Thursday at 7 p.m.

Back to School Bus Safety & Driving Tips

By Armistead Saffer

It's almost Back-to-School time! Please be more careful and alert now that the school busses will soon be on the road and children will be out waiting for their bus. The days are getting shorter, so there's less light early in the morning and the traffic pattern will change with getting kids off to school added back in people's schedules. Here are some safety tips to help keep everyone on the roads safe.

Drivers on the road:

- ▶ Never pass a bus loading or unloading children.
- ▶ The area 10 feet around a school bus is the most dangerous place for children—stop far enough back to allow them to safely get on and off of the bus.
- ▶ Traffic must stop if the yellow or red lights are flashing and the stop arm is extended.
- ▶ Be alert! Children often are unpredictable, and they tend to ignore hazards and take risks.
- ▶ If following a bus give it more distance than you would a car.
- ▶ Obey the speed limit especially in the School Zone.

Kids waiting for the bus:

- ▶ Be at the bus stop early.
- ▶ Stay away from the curb.
- ▶ Wait for the bus to stop before getting on the bus.
- ▶ Don't push getting on or off the bus.
- ▶ Check to make sure all traffic has stopped before getting on the bus.
- ▶ Don't distract the bus driver once on the bus.

You can come out on a nice summer day to have fun, eat local food, and see lots of community organizations all at one place. Commonwealth Receives $548,430 in Post-Disaster Mitigation Funds

RICHMOND – The Virginia Department of Emergency Management (VDEM) today announced awards of hazard mitigation assistance funds, through the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program (HMGP), following the January 2016 snowstorm.

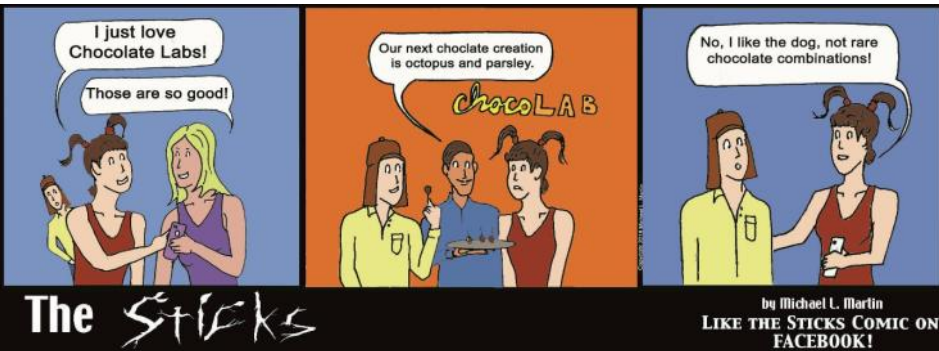

VDEM received 75 percent of the project funding from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), for which the Commonwealth covers 20 percent of the cost share. Projects from the HMGP go through a competitive in-state selection process.

The purpose of HMGP is to help communities implement hazard mitigation measures following a Presidential Major Disaster Declaration in the areas of the state, tribe, or territory requested by the governor or tribal executive. The key purpose of this grant program is to enact mitigation measures that reduce the risk of loss of life and property from future disasters.

“Projects of this type completely remove the risk and provide an opportunity for property owners to relocate to a more resilient location,” said VDEM State Coordinator Jeff Stern.

“The Hazard Mitigation Grant Program shows the importance of having a FEMA-approved hazard mitigation plan that results in tangible measures to protect life and property,” said VDEM Region 1 Chief Regional Coordinator Lori Dachille.

REC Warns of Phone Scam

Fredericksburg - Residential and business members of Rappahannock Electric Cooperative (REC) have received phone calls from scammers claiming to be from REC stating the members' accounts are overdue. The scam calls have been received by members throughout REC's 22-county service territory.

“The scams are very sophisticated, with the caller ID appearing to be that of REC. Calls made to the false phone number even sound legitimate, as the caller is greeted by a recorded message as if they had called the Cooperative,” explained John Crawford, REC's manager of Safety, Risk, and Operational Support Services.

If you receive a suspicious call, please keep the following in mind:

- REC does not use collection agencies to contact members by phone.
- Employees from REC do attempt to contact members with delinquent payments to warn them they are subject to disconnection, but that is done by an automated calling system. The co-op's member service representatives do not demand immediate payment.

- If you receive a phone call from someone claiming to be an REC employee demanding immediate payment, report the suspicious activity to local law enforcement.
- If you are uncertain if a call you received came from a legitimate REC representative please call REC directly at 1-800-552-3904 to confirm.

REC provides electric service to over 167,000 connections in parts of 22 Virginia counties. With its general office in Fredericksburg, Va., the Cooperative operates and maintains more than 17,000 miles of power lines through its service area, which ranges from the Blue Ridge Mountains to the tidal waters of the Chesapeake Bay. For more information about REC, please visit www.myrec.coop. Follow REC on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube.
