Animals Affected By Hurricane Florence to Receive Aid From Southern States Cooperative

Farm Supply Retailer Launches Feed It Forward and Puppy Paw Donation Drives

Local farm supply retailer Southern States Cooperative is raising funds in their stores for animals in the areas affected by Hurricane Florence.

The company is partnering with feed company Nutrena and its Feed It Forward program to collect financial donations in stores that the company will use to purchase and ship animal feed to the areas affected by Florence.

"The flooding forced a lot of animals to be displaced into overcrowded shelters who need adequate resources," said Southern States spokesperson, Chris Carter. "We're partnering with our local communities to help provide support and help in any way we can."

Southern States is also kicking off their annual Puppy Paw Donation Drive on October 1st to raise funds for local animal shelters in need. Customers can purchase a paper puppy paw emblem for $1 that the company will be display in stores. Southern States will use 100 percent of the proceeds to purchase and deliver pet food to local shelters in need in the store's area.

"The work that animal shelters perform on a daily basis has saved the lives of countless pets, and will continue to do so as long as we continue to support them," said Carter. "We want to help out the organizations who have dedicated their lives to help unwanted and abandoned pets have a safe, warm home of their own."

Donations for Hurricane Florence relief are being collected in stores through November 30. The Puppy Paw animal food drive will run through the end of October. Donations can be made at your local participating Southern States location. For more information, visit southernstates.com/puppypaw.

The State Fair of Virginia

Publisher's Message

I love this time of the year, Gail and I will be headed to the mountains soon for apples to make apple cider at our "Apple Cider Day", a growing family tradition. The changing leaves are so beautiful, it reminds me that life is always changing, nothing stays the same. We must be willing to work with and except changes that come to all of us. Soon there will be the smell of smoke in the air from a cozy fire place or wood stove. Fall is my time of the year, I also have wonderful memories of times past with family and friends that makes this time of the year even better.

Take care till next time.

The Bird Hunter

By Allen Brintley and "Pip"

Horses and mules are used for many different things. Some are still used to work in the fields or pull wagons. Most are used for recreation. A lot of people use them for trail riding and exploring. I tell people that a mule is like a four-wheel drive. They are very sure footed and can go almost anywhere. This makes them a good choice when it comes to hunting. They are always thinking and will pick up on things real quick. They will anticipate what you want after only a couple of times showing them.

I remember an old guy that had a mule that he would bird hunt off of. He had gotten older and wanted to sell his mule so that a younger hunter could enjoy bird hunting as much as he had for many years. This younger guy called and setup a time to come see the mule. The old man took the mule out back into the farm while the younger guy walked along and watched. All of a sudden the mule stopped and turned sideways. He pointed toward some overgrown fences and pawed the ground twice. The younger hunter looked confused and asked the old guy what that meant. The old man said "He's telling me that there are two birds in that fencerow." Sure enough, the young hunter walks over and two birds flush up and fly away. This goes on a few more times. Each time the mule paws the ground, he is always correct on the amount of birds that are hiding in the brush. The young hunter is so happy and makes a deal with the old man and takes the mule home. A few weeks have gone by and then one night the old man gets a call from the young hunter. The young hunter is upset and tells the old man that everything was going great until today. The mule has been pointing out the birds and pawing the ground to tell him how many birds are there. It has been amazing at how perfect the mule has been. The young hunter says "Today we went to a new farm that hadn't been hunted in years. I just knew that I would have a great day." The old man listened carefully as the younger guy told him what happened. He said "The mule was doing great all morning long. Then we got to an overgrown field at the rear of the farm. All of a sudden the mule stopped, reached down and grabbed a big limb in his mouth that had fallen off a tree. He started going crazy, jumping around and attacking that limb. I got scared, so I left and came home right away." The old man just laughed and told the younger guy that the mule was trying to tell him something. The younger guy couldn't figure it out so he asked the old man what it meant. The old guy said "That mule was trying to tell you that there were more birds in that field than you could shake a stick at!"

You can email me at Allen@TwinRiversRealty.com or call 690-7870. I'll see you on the trails.

Shepherd's Church Fall Bazaar

Christian Kelley (zero turn) & Steven Erwin won first place in the Lawn Mower Rodeo.

By Florence Cooke

Shepherd's United Methodist Church held its annual Fall Bazaar on Saturday, October 6. A beautiful fall day welcomed the many people who came to enjoy baked goods, a large silent auction, yard sale, clothes closet, lawn mower competition, children's games, food – including Brunswick stew, and fun and fellowship.

The layout of the event had been changed giving more space for the booths and people moving around. Picnic benches under the large trees near the food welcomed those who wanted to fellowship with new visitors and those who come annually to socialize and renew friendships.

After the lawnmower competition, the winners were announced - Steven Erwin for the riding mowers and Christian Kelly with the Zero Turn mower.

John Wilson, one of chairmen, stated, "The Country Courier is a community related paper that supports the events of the different organizations in both King and Queen and King William. Today is a community event that brings our church and the community together for fellowship and fun. As always we appreciate the support of the community."

Pastor Ellis Gayle stated, "A lot of hard work by a lot of folks make this event happen each year and it comes together as a day of fellowship and festivity. We are very blessed with a wonderful congregation. GOD IS GOOD."

A History of Halloween

The tradition started about 2,000 years ago in what is now Ireland with an annual festival of the dead. The night before, on October 31, people believed that the dead returned as ghosts. People would leave food and wine on their doorsteps to keep the roaming spirits at bay. People also wore masks in order to be mistaken as a fellow ghost.

In an attempt to make the celebration less pagan the Christian Church renamed the events on November 1 All Saints Day and in the eighth century All Hallows. The night before was called All Hallows Eve and was eventually shortened to Halloween.

In Medieval Britain, on November 2, people would beg for pastries called soul cakes and in return they would pray for their dead relatives. This was called souling. The tradition of trick-or-treating comes from a practice that was revived in the 19th century by Irish and Scottish immigrants called guising, where young people would dress in costume and collect wine, food, money and other things in exchange for singing, poetry and jokes. Costumes during this time were commonly woven out of straw.

At first, Halloween was more centered on the tricks and pranks like tipping over outhouses, opening farmers' gates and egging houses. Around the 1950s

Halloween became the family-friendly holiday it is today. These days some kids attend parties instead of going door to door, but adults are still prepared: More than 70 percent of Americans said they will be handing out candy. And they're hoping kids also enjoy the scary scenery.

Halloween has become increasingly popular over the years. Consumers spend an estimated $6 billion on Halloween each year, making it the second most commercial holiday after Christmas.

Riverside Walter Reed Hospital to Host Free Flu Shot Clinic October 25

While supplies last, no appointment needed.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

As part of its commitment to building a healthier community, Riverside Walter Reed Hospital, located at 7519 Hospital Drive in Gloucester, will administer free flu shots on Oct. 25 from 8 a.m. to noon.

Free flu shots will be available for ages 14 and up while supplies last.

Calling it the "number one thing people can do" to protect themselves from the flu, O.T. Adcock, Jr., M.D., RPh, a family practice physician who also serves as Associate Medical Director with Riverside Medical Group said, "there's almost no reason not to get a flu shot."

The flu, short for influenza, is a contagious respiratory illness caused by a virus. It can cause mild to severe illness. Serious outcomes of flu infection can result in hospitalization or death. Some people, such as older adults, young children, and people with certain health conditions, are at high risk for serious flu complications.

While the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) report that the flu season is unpredictable and constantly changing, with the severity and length of each season changing from year to year, flu season in the U.S. generally runs through the fall and winter.

The unknowns of the season underscore the importance to get vaccinated, the CDC reports, and take every day preventative measures to prevent spreading the virus, including staying away from sick people, washing hands frequently and staying home from work and school when sick to prevent exposing others.

Getting vaccinated before flu activity begins helps provide protection once flu season starts. It takes roughly two weeks following the vaccination for the body's immune system to respond to provide the protection.

For more information about Riverside Health System and the 2018 flu clinic series, visit www.riversideonline.com/flu.

King and Queen Central Tigers

Coming into their home game on Friday, September 21st against Rappahanock County, it had been 26 games, dating back to October 2015 since the King and Queen Central Tigers football team had tasted victory. But on this night despite a battle, when the clock hit zero, it was the Royal Tigers, who came out on the winning side.

The Tigers got off to a great start, as on the opening drive, they marched right down the field, and when Lamont Robinson broke off a 44 yard touchdown run, and caught the subsequent 2 point conversion from quarterback George Hill, it was 8-0, Tigers. But the visitors were determined to make this a game, and they scored the next two touchdowns to take a 14-8 lead after one quarter. The second quarter belonged to the Tigers however. Behind the running of Monte Hill, who sprinted to a 63 yard touchdown run, and Dre Berry, who bulled his way to a 20 yard run, the Tigers headed to halftime with a 20-14 lead.

The third quarter started with the Tiger defense making key plays, but on a long third down play, Rappahanock County broke off a 55 yard touchdown run, after many thought he would be stopped for a big loss. That put Rappahanock County back in front, 21-20. But the Tigers steadily moved the ball down the field on their next possession and when Robinson took it in from three yards out, the Tigers went in front for good, 26-21. Deandre Williams would add a 17 yard touchdown run, right up the middle to put the Tigers up 32-21, to end the 3rd quarter.

In the 4th, the Tigers continued to maintain their lead, but Rappahanock County refused to go down easily. With three minutes to go, they intercepted a Hill pass and brought it back to the Tigers 35 yard line. They quickly scored to make it, 32-29 with two minutes to go, and the home crowd would be forced to sweat it out. But the Tigers recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock. When it hit zero, the players and fans were overjoyed, as they knew this was a long time coming. For the game, the Tigers rushed 42 times for 550 yards, out of their single wing offense. Monte Hill led the ground game with 237 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown and Lamont Robinson finished the evening with 10 carries for 139 yards.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Three King William Supervisors Sneak Around The Rules

The folks who attended the King William County Board of Supervisors meeting on Monday September 24th, witnessed 'History in the Making.' Speaking of 'Draining the Swamp?' The KWBoS just added slime to the mud.

The Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, with apparent approval of our Commonwealth's Attorney, established a 'new and improved' method to get a 'Resolution' (County Law) put in place without the necessary majority. That's right: We have five Supervisors but now only two orchestrated votes are needed.

This is – for three certain members of the Board – a cleverly simplistic way to get the 'dirty work' of the County Board conducted. With a wary eye on the upcoming elections.

This 'legal' but decidedly underhanded way of conducting business in King William allows the Chairperson, or any other Supervisor, to present a Motion for a 'Resolution.' The 'Motion' – that may not have been on the published meeting Agenda prior to the meeting – is then 'presented' for a vote at the Board meeting.

Now here is the kicker; the Chairman then had his Motion (resolution) immediately 'seconded' by another Board member and it carried by the usual three on the Board. Does anyone believe this wasn't carefully rehearsed ahead of time?

So, here is where the 'magic' of the Board comes into play now that they have their new rule: Simply put, one of the remaining Board members 'Abstains' (e.g., does not vote at all) from voting on the motion. Once a Board member 'Abstains,' the Motion can pass by the vote of only two – as it did this time.

Turning 'Robert's Rules of Order' upside down when few were looking, the Chairman and his two compatriots changed how voting on Motions is conducted. This contemptible move allows two members to take the 'heat' for any unpopular resolution, while the others can 'honestly' say they didn't vote for it: 'I Abstained'

A very nice trick indeed, especially, when an upcoming election year may find angry voters trying to hold their Supervisor accountable for what is going on in the County. What say you?

Regards

Dave Hansen

97th District School Divisions Receive School Security Equipment Grants

-- Del. Chris Peace applauds grant funding for increased school security --

Central Virginia—As a member of the House Select Committee on School Safety, Delegate Christopher K. Peace (R-Hanover) applauds the recent announcement of $6 million in School Security Equipment Grants being awarded to protect students and teachers in schools across the Commonwealth.

The Virginia Department of Education and Department of Criminal Justice Services developed the criteria utilized in allocating the awards to local school divisions. The criteria places priority on schools most in need of modern security equipment, schools with relatively high numbers of offenses, schools with equipment needs identified by a school security audit, and schools in divisions least able to afford security upgrades.

"I am proud that the House of Delegates led the effort in recent years to invest in school safety, providing over $30 million in funding to hire school resource officers and invest in security infrastructure, as well as passing legislation to allow local schools to hire retired law enforcement to protect our children," stated Del. Peace.

Peace continued, "In 2013, the House passed HB 2343, creating the School Security Infrastructure Improvement Fund and Local School Safety Fund. This recurring grant fund allows the Department of Criminal Justice Services to offer grants of up to $100,000 per locality and require a 25% local match. Localities are allowed to use the money to fund upgrades to school security like hallway cameras, buzz-in systems and automatic locks on classroom doors. Additionally, since 2013 we appropriated approximately $6 million per year for school security infrastructure grants."

The 97th District divisions awarded the school security equipment grants are as follows: Hanover County — $94,752 for John M. Gandy Elementary, Oak Knoll Middle and Pearson's Corner Elementary, King William County — $88,000 for King William High, and New Kent County — $94,782 for New Kent Middle

The grants will pay for video monitoring systems, metal detectors, classroom locks, electronic-access controls, visitor-identification systems, direct communications links between schools and law enforcement agencies, and other security upgrades in 443 schools and other instructional facilities.

Delegate Chris Peace's voting record shows a consistent focus on opposing tax increases, protecting family values, defending the Constitution, and promoting job creation and a high quality of life in Hanover, King William and New Kent counties.

Prayer at School

This morning on my way to work I was pulling out of Walkerton Rd. I saw these students and staff praying. I called the school to ask the reason and was told that this is something they do every year.

It made my heart skip a beat because things like this you don't see often. It's a thing that is nearly forgotten and as they pray they are all probably paying for many different things but to be able to do that in the center of your school is pretty amazing.

I wanted to continue to sit there but I would have held up traffic. I was just so happy I was able to catch this moment because I have heard about it for so many years but never experienced it with my own two eyes.

Thank you to the school and staff and children who made my day.

Total 13 members from Hanover deployed, two from King William.

The cadets worked along with other agencies including the National Guard.

Serving at four different distribution sites, including three in the Wilmington area and one in Deep Run, CAP routed vehicle and pedestrian traffic, with the assistance of the North Carolina National Guard, to the site where the members worked in an assembly-line structure handing out a case of water and a case of MREs to each family that visited the site. Many schools and employers in VA excused the members to provide this assistance, with no compensation, to the communities, supporting CAP's volunteer service spirit and core value.

CAP, acting as the Air Force Auxiliary, is supporting Air Forces Northern during Defense Support of Civil Authorities operations following the landfall of Hurricane Florence on the East Coast. AFNORTH's primary role is to support U.S. Northern Command's efforts to provide assistance to the Federal Emergency Management Agency's annually. CAP's 60,000 members also perform homeland security, disaster relief and drug interdiction missions at the request of federal, state and local agencies. In addition, CAP plays a leading role in aerospace/STEM education, and its newest member of the Air Force's Total Force. In this role, CAP operates a fleet of 560 aircraft, performs about 90 percent of continental U.S. inland search and rescue missions as tasked by the Air Force Rescue Coordination Center and is credited by the AFRCC with saving an average of 80 lives annually.
