KWHS Graduate Rodney Robinson Named National Teacher of the Year

By Gene Campbell

Most of us had a favorite teacher when we attended high school who we not only liked but had a positive influence on our lives. Now, imagine that teacher being named National Teacher of the Year. Well, imagine no more...Rodney Robinson, a King William native and 1996 graduate of King William High School is living proof that it can happen....starting his journey "to the top" right here in King William County. Rodney was named the National Teacher of the Year last week, the highest honor a teacher can receive in the United States.

Rodney is the son of Elmore (deceased) and Sylvia Robinson. His mother still resides in King William and was the one who inspired him to go into teaching. Teachers play an important role in our life. They help us to become good human beings in society and good citizens of our community and our country. If teachers believe in their students, their students will believe in themselves.

Fishing in King & Queen

Jameson Tetrault caught this 2.5 lb. Bass at his granddads pond in King & Queen last Sunday.

Publisher's Message

The next scheduled election for King William County is on November 5th, 2019 all five (5) Districts Board of Supervisors, King William County School Board Members (Districts 2 through 5) and one at large seat, Commissioner of the Revenue, Commonwealth's Attorney, Sheriff, Treasurer, and two Soil & Water Directors will be on the ballot.

All of these positions are important in forming the kind of County you want to live and work in. Ask questions, gain information on the things that are important to you and your family. The Country Courier does not recommend or endorse any candidate. Our job is to let you know who is running for office. Attend your Board of Supervisors meetings, find out what is happening in your county and what future plans are on the horizon. All elected officials want input from you. We have the power of the vote and I have seen it make a difference. We may not be able to have a big impact on the world around us, but we can have a big impact on our local Government and our community.

Take care until next time.

Texting in the saddle?

By Allen Brintley and "Pip"

I see on the news about the dangers of texting on your phone while driving a car but I would also say don't text while on horseback. You need all your attention anytime you are dealing with horses or mules. I can imagine someone looking down at their phone while a limb knocks them right out of the saddle. You should even take the time to condition your animal to all the sounds of your phone. The ring tone at different volumes or the vibration may cause problems with your animal. I have even gone so far as to have a friend call me several times so as to condition Pip to the cell phone ringing. You don't want to wait until you are in the saddle and have your cell phone go off and startle you and your horse. Take the time to work with your animal and when you do get that important call or text, stop and get off before calling them back.

A farmer's wife is demanding an exotic present this year for her birthday. The farmer obliges and buys her a zebra. After a few days, the zebra is settling into farm life and decides to try and make new friends. It walks up to some of the cows in the field and says "What do you do?" One of the cows replies "I eat the grass to make the milk." The zebra shakes her head up and down and then walks over to the chicken coop and asks the hens "What do you do?" A Hen replied "We eat the corn and lay the eggs." The zebra shakes her head up and down and then goes over to the barn where the farmer's stud horse is eating hay. She looks the stallion over and finally asks "So, what do you do?" The stallion answers "If you take those pajamas off, I'll show you!"

You can email me at Allen@TwinRiversRealty.com or call 690-7870. I'll see you on the trails.

Atkins Honored

The April 2nd Republican Party of King and Queen held its annual Spring Event at the Woman's Club where The Man of the Year is honored. Chairman, Bill Rilee was absent so Shirley Jones welcomed everyone.

Guest speaker Sheriff John Charbonneau told about the modernization of the Sheriff's Department in the 37 years he has been a member of the department.

Charbonneau also had the honor of naming the MAN OF THE YEAR for 2019, Charles Adkins, the county's Commonwealth's Attorney. Atkins was presented with a plaque from the Sheriff's Department. Shortly after graduating, he began working at the Chesapeake Corporation in West Point. Adkins worked at the Chesapeake Corporation for eight years. He then went to further his education at the College of William and Mary from 1981 to 1984, where he obtained his law degree.

Charles Adkins started his career as the defense attorney for the Town of West Point and surrounding counties from 1984 to 1999. He then became the Commonwealth Attorney for King &

Charles Adkins

Queen County from 2000 to 2019.

On behalf of the King & Queen County Sheriff's Office, we would like to show our greatest appreciation for the hard work and dedication you have given the county over the past 19 years."

In turn Mr. Adkins had the honor of naming Sheriff John Charboneau as the MAN OF THE YEAR from the Republican Party of King and Queen.

The Republican Party is very proud of these two men and their dedication to the people and county of King and Queen.

Large Crowd Attends King William Republican Party Mass Meeting

By Gene Campbell & John Breeden

King William politics on the state level has been relatively calm in the past. However, in this year's election to represent parts of King William County, Hanover County and all of New Kent County in the 97th legislative district of the House of Delegates, incumbent Republican Delegate Chris Peace is facing opposition within his party. Scott Wyatt, a member of the Hanover County Board of Supervisors, is challenging Peace for the Republican nomination. Normally a primary would be held to select a nominee but this year a District Convention (the only one in the state this year) was selected as the method to elect a nominee. The District Convention will be held on May 4 at Hanover High School. The elected nominee will be on the ballot in the General Election this fall.

All three counties held mass meetings to select delegates to the District Convention. The King William Republican Party held its mass meeting on April 18th at the King William High School gym. Over 200 people were in attendance including the candidates and their supporters. King William Republican Party Chairman John Hubbard opened the meeting and the first order of business was to elect a Temporary Chairman. Ed Moren was nominated and elected Temporary Chairman. Molly Longest was elected Temporary Secretary. Ed then appointed a Sargent of Arms, a Timekeeper, a Parliamentarian and temporary committees (Credentials, Nominations, Rules, Resolutions, and Tellers). The committees met while the two candidates spoke to the crowd.

The Credentials Committee returned and reported 241 properly filed and credentialed candidates were qualified to be Delegates after which the Nominating Committee Chairman moved to elect all 241 properly credential candidates as Delegates (including 77 alternates). The Nominations Committee report was accepted by acclamation and the meeting was adjourned.

FOLEY

Ann Paul Foley, 85, of King William, VA went home to be with the Lord on Wednesday, April 17th, 2019.

Ann was born and raised in Hopewell, VA. She often spoke of her life growing up in a place she loved so much. She loved to share stories of her younger years attending her beloved school, Hopewell High School. She shared stories about cheerleading and The Teen Canteen, as well as stories of being with her friends, and meeting the love of her life, Mike Foley.

She married Mike Foley in 1953. They raised four beautiful daughters and lived in Woodbridge, Virginia during the 60's. Sometime later, they relocated to Waukegan, Illinois where they resided for 30 years. She was a stay at home mother who spent most of her days chauffeuring her girls to practices, games, and performances. Eventually, they moved back to King William, Virginia in 1999. Ann became very involved at Colosse Baptist Church, where she belonged to the Sanctuary Choir, The Faith Bears and Young at Heart. She loved bowling, painting, singing, word puzzles, board games, riding the country backroads, and most of all, bargain shopping. She looked forward to having lunch out with her girls and driving her scooter through Wal-Mart.

Most importantly, she enjoyed being with her family and her loved ones. She will be remembered for her story telling, her contagious laugh, her beautiful smile, and her kind heart.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Michael Foley, and her parents, Clyde and Tolie Paul. She is survived by her sister, Hilda Hall (Jim), her four daughters, Nancy Embrey (Mike), Dawn Smith (Linwood), Sue Croxton (Brad), Judy Metzger (Rick), her grandchildren, Chris Pitts, Leanne Semones (Calvin), Emily Hill (Scotty), Joey Smith (Kasey), Danny Smith (Mary), Scotty Smith, Jay Croxton (Brianna), Jackie Lane (Noah), Ricky Metzger, Timmy Metzger, Mikey Metzger, Allison Chaffin (Joe) and Erin Embrey, as well as 15 great grandchildren. She is also survived by several cousins, nieces, and nephews.

The family received visitors Monday, April 22nd from 5-8 PM at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St., West Point, VA. The funeral service was held 11 AM Tuesday, April 23rd at Colosse Baptist Church, 23945 King William Rd., West Point, VA. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Muscular Dystrophy Association, 1503 Santa Rosa Road #120, Richmond, VA 23229 in honor of her great grandson, Blake Pitts, or to Colosse Baptist Church New Building Fund, 23945 King William Rd., West Point, VA 23181. Tributes may be posted at www.vincentfh.com.

“Encouragement for Widows” in 12th Year at Rehoboth

By Florence Cooke

Since the fall of 2007 widows have been meeting monthly for dinner and Bible study at Rehoboth Baptist Church. This monthly event is currently in its 12th year and has served the purpose of fellowship around a meal and building relationships among widows. The purpose of this group is to provide “Encouragement for Widows from God’s Word.”

At 6 p.m. a simple but delicious home cooked meal is served, followed by a short game of Bingo with prizes of hot rolls, homemade soup, something from the menu of the night or other goodies. Beginning at 6:45 to 7:30 p.m., there is a Bible study led by Anita Blake, Assistant to the Pastor.

The next meeting is Thursday, May 16, at 6 p.m. at the church located at 5904 Acquinton Church Road in King William. If you are widowed and would like to enjoy the fellowship and company of other widows, please make plans to join the group. All are welcome. This is a great time of year to check us out because the meeting ends while it is still daylight.

A faithful attendee describes this time as “not a grief support group but a group of widows coming together for fellowship and a study of the Bible.” Relationships are built around a common life experience.

For questions or to let them know you are coming so they can set a place for you at the table, please call 769 – 8400.

5th District Town Hall Meeting

By Bob Ehrhart

On April 22nd, about 28 citizens came out to the town hall event sponsored by 5th District supervisor Bob Ehrhart @ MVFD.

About two dozen of the citizens resided in the 5th District including Mark Lee (who is running for school board) and Ed Moren (who is Chairman of KWIC and considering a run for supervisor). Benjamin Shumaker (who is running for supervisor in the 4th District) was also there. No school board members were present, although three were invited.

Despite some differing opinions, the meeting had an overall positive tone. Some suggestions and/or topics included:

- 1) Review, summary, and highlights of the proposed fy20 budget.
- 2) Increased transparency on the part of the school board to let citizens know exactly where/how their money is being spent.
- 3) Pros and cons of forested land use exemption in the county and budget/school impacts.
- 4) The need to diversify and increase the commercial tax base.
- 5) Ongoing/increasing problem of litter along the roadways and the desire to have more programs and enforcement in place (such as providing reward when persons

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The constituents of this district should NOT consider supporting a man who relies on underhanded behavior to gain office.

As the Hanover representative to the Legislative District Committee for the 97th district, Scott Wyatt supported using a convention, rather than the usual primary election, to choose the Republican Party nominee for the VA General Assembly delegate. Wyatt did not make it known that he was considering running for the delegate office while on the committee.

In the RPV Party Plan Article VII Section J on ethical conduct, it states that any POTENTIAL or actual conflict should be disclosed in writing, which Wyatt did NOT do. Wyatt should withdraw from the race and the usual primary election should be used to determine our delegate. Voters will already be using primaries to determine other elected officials for our area, so there wouldn't be any extra cost or hassle. Instead, Wyatt endorsed hosting another event that must be planned and payed for.

Furthermore, many constitutes aren't able to participate in an all-day convention, such as first responders, self-employed, elderly, handicapped, and caretakers of children. They won't be allowed a voice in this election. It would appear that Wyatt believes his only chance at this significant position is if most people aren't able to vote. The constituents of this district should NOT consider supporting a man who relies on underhanded behavior to gain office.

Leah Matthews
King William

Dear Editor,

You can't say you haven't been warned

King William citizens should visit The Bull Elephant and read the article posted by Charles McAndrews from Fairfax County to get a clear understanding of what is quietly happening at the local government level. The article is "Charles McAndrews Comments to the Fairfax Board of Supervisor on this year's Fairfax County Budget."

Mr. McAndrews states that "real estate taxes have increased over the last 20 years 3 times faster than household incomes" Has anyone in King William done a similar survey?

Mr. McAndrews serves on the Fairfax County Taxpayers Alliance Board and has lived in Fairfax for over 50 years. He rightfully brings a focus on the Fairfax County unfunded liabilities, liabilities of 5.3 billion dollars (2.84 billion with County Employees--3.46 billion with Fairfax School Employees). Ladies and Gentlemen....this is in just 1 county.

Since 2000 Mr. McAndrews points out the county school spending has increased some 122% , while the same schools enrollment has only increased 24%. Here in King William we have had over the last 10 years an additional enrollment of 11 students (yes this isn't a misprint -11 students) Contrast that with the increase's in our own County schools spending over that 10 year period. This should be a question asked and answered by our local elected officials, given the schools are asking for a significant increase this year in local funding

Compounding this problem is the very generous retirement dynamics in the public sector. In Fairfax county employees can retire at age 55 with 90% of their salary. Where in the private sector can you find such generous retirement benefits?

The King William B.O.S will no doubt be bragging about another .02 reduction in the real estate tax rate, after piling up a 10.9 million dollar reserve fund, from a mere 3.2 million just 7 years ago, but that would be asking the wrong question.

On page 61 of the 2017 C.A.F.R Comprehensive Annual Financial Report it states in plain English that the O.P.E.B Other Post Employment Benefits had not at that time been funded by a single dime. Little wonder why the school board members declined the invitation offered by the King William T.E.A Party to speak on this issue at one of our meetings. When these school employees begin to retire and want the promised benefits...what do you think happens?

Stay silent and apathetic, that is your right. Just don't say you hadn't been warned as to what is coming to King William, Fairfax style.

Bob Shannon
King William T.E.A Party
(Taxed Enough Already)

Dear Editor,

On Thursday, April 18th the King William County Republican Committee kicked off the mass meeting for the 97th district Delegate seat at the King William High School Gymnasium with over 160 people attending.

In my observations of the Hanover meeting weeks ago and King William mass meeting; despite the unusual surprise of having to prepare for a convention, and in comparison to Hanover County's disruptive, somewhat hostile and disorganized mass meeting; the citizens of King William County, came together peacefully to express their support for their candidate.

Friends from both sides, many for Delegate Chris Peace, and a good size group for Scott Wyatt registered at the mass meeting to support those that filed to be delegates at the convention. There were about 150 registered voters attending.

The King William County Republican Committee and volunteers got there early to get the meeting place ready. We also posted a sign at the old designated location - King William County Library - about 1/8th of a mile up the street from the high school. The committee chairman John R. Hubbard allowed sufficient time before starting the meeting for those that may have been unaware of the change in location.

As people started coming in, a potential constituent of mine and volunteer who assisted in the meeting, Yvonne Truitt Broaddus, stopped me inside the gymnasium and said "let's pray". Knowing how important prayer is - Right there on the spot - we prayed for Gods will to be done; that the meeting would go smoothly and lifted up some other requests, concluding in the prayer that no matter what happens that these requests bring our Lord all the glory. The Lord was certainly at work this night in many ways!

Even though I was somewhat nervous at the event, it was a blessing to meet people that had different opinions about who is the better candidate. I watched while both sides, for Delegate Peace and Scott Wyatt supporters mingled in friendship with one and another.

There were many county officials there, such as Board of Supervisors Travis Moskalski, Bill Hodges, and David Hansen, several School Board Members Kathy Morrison, Lindsay May Robinson, and Steven Tupponce, Sheriff Jeff Walton, and others who some were observers.

I was really excited to be able to personally greet my opponent - David Hansen - Board of Supervisor of the 4th District, his wife and I believe daughter. I also greeted my yellow board irritant friend Sarge Bruce. I really do have a heart for these guys just not for their tactics.

Despite the diversity in opinions on who would be the better Delegate I was encouraged from watching the volunteers working together along with the voters who came to show their support in a peaceful manner. It was overwhelming; kind of a God thing.

Special thanks to all those that volunteered at the mass meeting and especially Ed Moren for taking the elected role of Chairman.

Also thanks to the Wonderful New Kent volunteers! BTW, There was one disruptive lady who lives in Cumberland that was creating contention for a several committees but nothing to difficult for our Sgt of Arms Straughan Robinson, and Michael Morrison to handle. I forgot her name, but she told me she was there helping Scott Wyatt. She was really ranting that we did not allow her in the room where the mass meeting was to be held until we sat all the registered voters. This is how they did it in Hanover too. You want to focus on making sure registered voters get seated first then observers are to follow. It is called organization. No rights were violated as she tried to convey. Stand at ease lady...

When all was over and done, the Delegates and Alternates were selected, the meeting adjourned and those that were there whether supporting Chris Peace or Scott Wyatt peacefully said their farewells to friends, neighbors, colleagues, church goers and the candidates.

So in summary - thank you King William County residents for participating and playing your part in democracy. Board of Supervisors
District 4 Candidate
King William

Dear Editor,
Like listening to a bad episode of Green Acres

I was fortunate enough to have attended the Town Hall meeting held by 5th District Board of Supervisor Robert “Bob” Ehrhart at the Mangohick Fire Dept and it was, to say the least, an eye-opening experience with the willingness for Mr. Ehrhart to be so forthcoming with information, well-informed and very open to any/all questions and comments by those who attended.

On that note, I do have to question just who and why certain individuals attended. It was like listening to a bad episode of Green Acres and at times, I found myself wanting to laugh thinking these individuals were joking until I realized they were serious. These are my neighbors? These are the people who tried to turn an informative Town Hall meeting into a “Beat Up On Bob Ehrhart” evening? Why attend if you have “nothing positive to say” about your elected representative?

The mention of broadband internet REALLY made me want to laugh. There are SO many areas in other nearby counties waiting for the same and have been. Negotiate away. The answer is going to come back the same. The area is too rural. So now, you have to decide do you want city life in the country? It just does not work that way unless you live beside an interstate, which defeats the purpose of moving to the country, now doesn’t it?

Just like the development in the area. So many talked about how tired they were of taxes falling on the homeowners. Well then, before a developer gets a subdivision approved in the area by the Planning Commission, he should contribute significantly to schools and road improvements through proffers. If he is not willing to do so, he’s in it for PROFIT....NOT THE PEOPLE OF KING WILLIAM. Every homeowner moved into a home that initially got passed by the Planning Commission.

With regards to the “horrible response time by fire/rescue” to be stated IN the Mangohick Fire Dept. sickened me. I have been in an accident in King William and the response time was nearly immediate once a great neighbor actually found me down in a rather deep ravine and called for help for me.

Littering in and around the area does exist. So do hunting dogs running all over the roads and trespassing on people’s property. So do “Lot for Sale” signs that are nearly every 500 feet apart in some areas. For those who don’t know, since 1989, you cannot operate a motor vehicle in Virginia with an open container. However, Virginia is one of the few states that does permit a passenger to have an open container. The bottom line I took away from this Town Hall meeting was that Mr. Ehrhart took time to be very open, honest, provide facts, proof he has followed through with lowering taxes and left me wondering what the other Board Members must have to hide to remain so silent and vote in such a way that makes no sense at all. Mr. Ehrhart’s ideas were GREAT ones and he’s kept his promise. That IS a positive thing to remark about and be thankful for. I suppose if others had thought of them first they’d agree and be less negative towards one man serving his area in an “open door” style. Sometimes hearing the truth hurts and yet we’re supposed to be tolerant of one another. Then to wrap up this Town Hall meeting with “here, sign my petition to run against him” by someone who reminded me of Otis from the Andy Griffith show was just a blatant show of disrespect. I was truly disgusted by this. Setup your own Town Hall meeting and discuss what makes you better qualified rather than intrude on another’s program.

It takes a village to raise a child. It takes volunteers to better a community. If you’re going to look down on someone, it should be to help them up and as my King William born & bred grandmother would say “When you point a finger at another, you aim three back at yourself!” There were quite a lot of finger pointers at Mr. Ehrhart’s Town Hall meeting. Are you really ready for three-fold to come back to you?

Hope Card Program

Individuals who carry a Protective Order issued by King William JDR or King & Queen County JDR now have access to a new resource to assist them. The King William/King & Queen Hope Card Program is a new service made available to anyone with a final valid, long-term (12 months or more) order of protection for domestic violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault. Through funds from an Office of the Violence Against Women Act and a V-STOP grant, the HOPE Card Program allows individuals to request a wallet-sized card that summarizes the protective order's most important details.

The HOPE card is intended as a more convenient way for people who have permanent Protective Orders to keep relevant information about their orders with them at all times. It is small and durable and can be easily carried in a wallet or purse. It is also a convenient for children to have access to relevant information about an order that protects them. HOPE cards are also an easy way to allow law enforcement to know there is a valid, permanent protective order in place and assists in safety by informing law enforcement about weapons involved in the incident resulting in a protective order. You may request one card per individual named on the protective order to, for example, be provided to a child's school and after-school care program. Hope Cards are not issued based on temporary Orders of Protection.

For more information on the HOPE card or to request a form you can visit the King William County Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court Clerk's Office lobby or call King William/King & Queen Victim Witness Director, Robin Bostic, at 804-769-4159.
